COMMANDER'S POLICY LETTER 2-07

From: Commander

Subj: APPROPRIATE ATTIRE FOR THE BARBER PHYSICAL ACTIVITY CENTER

1. This policy letter defines the dress codes applicable to all patrons utilizing the Barber Physical Activity Center.
2. Effective immediately, all patrons of the Barber Physical Activity Center shall wear appropriate attire as defined within this paragraph. Waist-length shirts are required in all areas. Waist-length tank tops are authorized; however, sports bras alone are not authorized. Shorts or sweatpants will be worn in a manner that does not display undergarments above the waistband. Sandals or open-toed shoes are not authorized unless medically necessary. Hats and "do-rags" (a piece of cloth or bandanna-like fabric used to cover the head) are not authorized and will not be worn inside of the Barber Physical Activity Center. Headgear deemed acceptable includes sweatbands, religious head coverings, or those items worn for medical reasons.
3. Patrons who fail to abide by this policy will be asked to change/adjust their attire or leave the premises.
